One of the most universally used blades in the paper industry, the Fiberflex doctor blade is used in both wet end and dry end applications. It provides cleaning of roll surface contaminants. The Fiberflex doctor blade is a cost-effective, versatile product for almost all paper machine applications.

Overview

Features
- Glass fiber and epoxy resin laminate
- Maximum temperature: 320°F (160°C)
- Available thicknesses: 0.055” (1.4mm)

Benefits
- Excellent cleaning of contaminated rolls
- Works well in wet and dry applications
- Cost-effective

Applications
- Wet end rolls
- Felt rolls
- Dryer cans
- Calender rolls