The Lamflex doctor blade has been a reliable and widely used material for many years and is especially effective for low-temperature wet end and press section applications. The Lamflex doctor blade is a cost effective solution and is safe for most roll surfaces.

Overview

Features
- Cotton and phenolic resin laminate
- Maximum temperature: 240° F (120° C)
- Thicknesses: 0.117” (2.9 mm)

Benefits
- Applicable for many applications
- Gentle on soft roll surfaces
- Efficient, effective cleaning
- Cost effective alternative

Applications
- Breast rolls
- Wire return rolls
- Rubber press rolls
- Felt rolls
- Soft size press rolls